Management's Discussion and Analysis

The economic slowdown has adversely impacted cities in placing debt for mobile home parks in particular and development in general. The fiscal year ending June 30, 2009 saw no new mobile home parks acquired. Negotiations were in process with the County of San Bernardino regarding assisted home loans and with the cities of Fairfield and Fontana relating to mobile home parks. In 2010 a proposal was made for mobile home park financing in the City of Salinas. A new mobile home park was approved by the City of Salinas, ownership facilitated by Millennium Housing. The transaction closed in July 2010. In addition, there were several proposals for participating in federally assisted first time home buying financing. To date, nothing has been finalized.

With the discontinuance of the ICFA's relationship with California Rural Home Mortgage Finance Authority the major source of revenue continues to be mobile home park financing. The Authority is now providing financing to mobile home parks throughout California with parks in San Diego, Orange, Los Angeles, Fresno, Monterey, Santa Clara, San Mateo and Sonoma Counties.

The Board's decision in 2008 to initiate representation in both Sacramento and Los Angeles continued in 2009.

Outstanding conduit debt issued by the Authority stood at $179,100,000 at June 30, 2009. Cash and cash equivalents decreased by $105,816 over the year resulting in balances consisting of $542,899 of cash and near cash and net assets $552,841.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Board of Directors

Independent Cities Finance Authority

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of, the business type activities, of the Independent Cities Finance Authority, as of and for the year ended June 30, 2009 which comprise the Authority's basic financial statements as listed in the table of contents. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Independent Cities Finance Authority management. Our responsibility is to an express opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. These standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatements. An audit include examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the business-type activities, of the Independent Cities Finance Authority, as of June 30, 2009, and the changes in financial position and, cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Management's discussion and analysis is not a required part of the basic financial statements but is supplementary information required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. We have applied certain procedures, which consisted principally of inquires of management regarding the methods of measurement and presentation of the required information. However, we did not audit the information and express no opinion on it.

Notes to the Financial Statements
June 30, 2009

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) The Reporting Entity

The Independent Cities Finance Authority (Authority) is a joint exercise of Powers authority originally set up in 1989 to provide lease financing of capital improvements by member cities. As the objectives of the Authority changed from facilities leasing for cities to affordable housing the original joint powers agreement was modified to provide for associate membership to cities in which projects were located. By 2007 the Authority was completely out of the equipment leasing business, as with having completed the 'Fresh Rate' program. The joint venture with the California Rural Home Mortgage Finance Authority ended in 2008.

In fiscal year ended June 30, 2003, the Authority changed its focus to begin working with non-profit entities to provide affordable housing through mobile home parks. The principal strategy was to provide conduit financing for affordable housing mobile home projects. This strategy would provide for affordable housing while not obligating the Authority to the liabilities, servicing of substantial lease obligations nor payment of interest and principal on the bonded debt.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The Authority is accounted for as an enterprise fund (proprietary fund type). A fund is an accounting entity with a self-balancing set of accounts established to record the financial position and results of operations of a specific governmental activity. The activities of the enterprise funds closely resemble those of ongoing businesses in which the purpose is to conserve and add to basic resources while meeting operating expenses. Enterprise funds accounts for operations that provide services on a continuous basis and are substantially financed by revenues derived from user charges. The Authority utilizes the accrual basis of accounting. Revenues are recognized when earned and expenses are recognized as they are incurred.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The Authority applies all applicable GASB pronouncements in accounting and reporting for proprietary operations as well as the following pronouncements issued on or before November 30, 1989, unless those pronouncements conflict with or contradict GASB pronouncements: Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Statements and Interpretations, Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinions, and Accounting Research Bulletins (ARB's) of the Committee on Accounting Procedures of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

(c) Classifications of Revenues and Expenses

Operating revenues consist of fees relating to the origination and continuance of the bond issues set up for the purpose of purchasing and equipping the mobile home parks by the non-profit agencies.

Expenses consist primarily of management and other professional fees. Due to the inability of cities to obtain financing for low income mobile home parks during the recent economic slowdown, ICFA management entered into contracts for representation in both Sacramento and Los Angeles.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the statements of cash flows, cash equivalents are defined as short-term, highly liquid investments that are both readily convertible to known amounts of cash or so near their maturity that they present insignificant risk of changes in value because of changes in interest rates, and have an original maturity date of 3 month or less.

(e) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(f) Income Taxes

The Authority is not subject to income taxes pursuant to Section 115 of the Internal revenue Code and the corresponding section of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

(g) Name Changed

The Authority's name was changed from the Independent Cities Lease Finance Authority to the Independent Cities Finance Authority executed on May 21, 2008 to better reflect the nature of the Authority's operations. For the sake of clarity the changed name is used for audited financial presentations beginning in 2006.

(2) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and investments as of June 30, 2009 are classified in the accompanying financial statements as follows:

Balance sheet:

Cash in bank:	$283,985
Investments with Local Agencies Investment Fund (LAIF), an agency of the State of California:	237,003
	$520,988
Undeposited receipts:	21,911
	$542,899

LAIF funds are readily available, interest rates are variable and credit risk is not classified. Bank deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation up to $250,000.

Undeposited receipts relate to earned income where the checks clearly were received prior to June 30, 2009 but not deposited until July or August.

(3) Accounts Receivable, Deferred Revenues

Accounts receivable and deferred revenues interrelate to timing issues on payments from the non-profit agencies, Millennium Housing Corporation, Millennium Housing of California, Coach of San Diego, Inc. and Caritas Affordable Housing, Inc.

(4) Conduit Debt Issued and Related Mobile Home Parks

As noted in Note 1 beginning in 2003 a program was initiated for the issuance of conduit debt for the payment of purchase cost and development of locations to be used as low and moderate income mobile home parks. The Authority became the issuer, as previously mentioned, and had no financial or managerial responsibilities.

Westlake Mobile Home Park Revenue Bonds

The Authority entered into an agreement with Millennium Housing of California to issue conduit financing in the amount of $15,180,000 on May 8, 2003 with an additional issue of $16,700,000 in June, 2007 to refund the original issue. Westlake is a mobile home park that provides low and very low-income housing. The Authority would earn certain fees and maintain certain cash and investment accounts as set forth in the bond issue. The Authority is not liable for repayment in the event of default. Accordingly, the bonds are not recorded as a liability of the Authority in the accompanying financial statements. The mobile home park is located in Fresno, California.

El Granada Mobile Home Park Revenue Bonds-Moss Beach, CA

On April 29, 2004, the Authority issued $28,585,000 Series 3A to fund a loan to Coach of San Diego, Inc. to finance the acquisition of real property constituting the El Granada Mobile Home Park, now called Pillar Ridge, which consists of 227 mobile home spaces of which 198 of the spaces are double wide spaces. The Authority is not liable for payments in the event of default. Accordingly, the bonds are not recorded as a liability of the Authority in the in the accompanying financial statements.

Hermosa Beach, Marineland Mobile Home Park Revenue Bonds

On June 23, 2004, the Authority issued $7,270,000 Series 2004A to fund a loan to Millennium Housing of California to finance the acquisition of real property constituting the Marineland Mobile Home Park, which consists of 60 mobile home spaces. The Authority is not liable for repayment in the event of default. Accordingly, the bonds are not recorded as a liability of the Authority in the accompanying financial statements.
